Exhibition from 20. May to 16. July 2010
Opening on 20. May from 18h

Present in Geneva for "20 years already", the Guy Bärtschi Gallery has evolved towards an increasingly defined and targeted programme of exhibitions, affirming its particular interest in art from the 1980s to the present day. Today, to celebrate its anniversary, the Guy Bärtschi Gallery invites you to revisit 20 years of activities with the various artists who have participated in the development of its programming. For this memorable occasion, the exhibition program is particularly exclusive.
