Galerie Guy Bärtschi is very pleased to present Collective II for its summer exhibition, which brings together a group of mainly recent works by:

After an end of season rich in artistic events around the world, you will be able to discover on this occasion some works in preview in Switzerland or rediscover the emblematic aspects of the various works in progress of a large part of the artists with whom the Guy Bärtschi Gallery has been collaborating for many years already.

We hope that this new summer hanging will please you as much as it does us, and we wish you all an excellent and pleasant summer.
